CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION
UNITED STATES SENATOR

SENATOR PATRICK LEAHY
United States Senator - Democrat, Vermont

Patrick Leahy of Middlesex was elected to the United States Senate in 1974 and remains the only Democrat elected to this office from Vermont. In December 2008, Leahy became the longest serving senator from Vermont. Leahy was raised in Montpelier and graduated from Saint Michael's College (1961) and received his Juris Doctorate from Georgetown University Law Center (1964). He served eight years as State's Attorney in Chittenden County. In his seventh term, Leahy is the second most senior member of the Senate, a senior member of the Agriculture and Appropriations Committees, and Chairman of both the Judiciary Committee and the State and Foreign Operations Appropriations Subcommittee. He also serves on the Committee on Rules & Administration. He is co-chair of the Senate National Guard Caucus and co-chair of the Congressional Internet Caucus. He co-authored the Northeast Interstate Dairy and the Milk Income Loss Compensation program and is the father of the national organic standards and a variety of other farm, conservation and environmental initiatives, including efforts to protect Lake Champlain. He wrote the first law in the world banning the export of landmines, and the Leahy War Victim's Fund is used worldwide to help landmine victims. Leahy and his wife, Marcelle Pomerleau Leahy live in Middlesex and have five grandchildren.

CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION
UNITED STATES SENATOR

SENATOR BERNARD SANDERS
United States Senator - Independent, Vermont

Bernard Sanders of Burlington, Chittenden County, was born in Brooklyn, New York, on September 8, 1941. He is the longest-serving Independent in the history of the United States Congress. Sanders was first elected to the United States Senate in 2006 and was reelected in 2012, where he serves on six committees: Energy and Natural Resources; Environment and Public Works; Health, Education, Labor and Pensions; Veterans' Affairs; Budget; and Joint Economic. In the 113th Congress, Sanders will Chair the Veterans Committee, as well as the Primary Health and Aging Subcommittee. He is a supporter of progressive tax reform, national health care, affordable housing, family farms, a higher minimum wage, workers' rights and a national energy policy emphasizing energy efficiency and renewable energy. Sanders served in the United States House of Representatives from 1991-2006, where he was a founder and former chair of the Congressional Progressive Caucus, which has grown to more than 70 members. Before his election to Congress, Sanders served as Mayor of Burlington (1981-1989). His accomplishments as Mayor included building affordable housing, revitalizing the City's waterfront and downtown and supporting the arts. He was chosen as one of the twenty best mayors in the country by U.S. News and World Report. He is married to Jane O'Meara Sanders, and they have 4 children. Before being elected mayor, he worked as a writer, documentary producer, and Director of the American People's History Society. Vermont Phone Number 800-339-9834 or 1-802-862-0697. CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION
REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS

REPRESENTATIVE PETER WELCH
United States Representative to Congress - Democrat, Vermont

Peter Welch was elected to the United States House of Representatives in 2006. A member of the Democratic House leadership, he is a chief deputy whip and a member of the Democratic Steering and Policy Committee. He also serves on the Committee on Energy and Commerce. Welch was born in Springfield, Massachusetts, in 1947 into a family of six children. He attended Holy Name Grammar School and Cathedral High School. After graduating from Holy Cross College in 1969, he was selected to be in the first class of Robert F. Kennedy Fellows. This honor allowed him to continue the civil rights work he began in college, helping families in Chicago overcome discriminatory housing policies. Welch received his law degree from the University of California Berkeley, Boalt Hall, in 1973. Settling in Vermont, he worked as a public defender and then started the law firm of Welch, Graham & Manby in White River Junction. In 1980, Welch was elected to represent Windsor County in the State Senate. In 1985 he was unanimously elected by his colleagues to serve as President Pro Tem of the Vermont Senate, becoming the first Democrat to hold this leadership position in state history. He served as President Pro Tem from 1985 to 1988. Welch returned to the Senate in 2001, and his colleagues again unanimously elected him President Pro Tem in 2003, in which role he served until 2006. He is married to Vermont state representative Margaret Cheney.

STATE OFFICERS
EXECUTIVE BRANCH
GOVERNOR

GOVERNOR PETER SHUMLIN

Peter Shumlin began his career in public service in Putney almost 30 years ago. In 1980 at the age of 24 he was elected to serve on the town's select board. In 1990 Montpelier came calling when Governor Madeleine Kunin appointed Peter to fill an empty seat in the Vermont House of Representatives. After 3 years in the House he ran for one of Windham County's two Senate seats. He was elected in 1992 and would represent Windham County for the next 10 years. During his second term he was elected Democratic leader and in 1997 his colleagues chose him to serve as the President pro-tempore, the chamber's top leadership post.

Peter ran unsuccessfully for lieutenant governor in 2002. After a 4 year absence he returned to the Senate in 2006 where he was again selected to serve as the President pro-tempore. In November of 2010 he was elected Governor of Vermont.

During his 13 years in the Senate Peter has served on the Rules Committee, the Finance Committee, the Transportation Committee and the Appropriations Committee.

Governor Shumlin serves as chair of the Democratic Governors Association.

Peter, 56, is the father of two daughters Olivia, 21, and Rebecca, 20. In his free time he enjoys running, hiking and cross country skiing. He likes to fish, hunt and garden and can sometimes be found spreading manure and cutting hay at the dairy farm where he is a partner.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR PHIL SCOTT

Phil Scott was born in Barre, Vermont in 1958 and is currently a resident of Berlin. He graduated from Spaulding High School and the University of Vermont with a B.S. in Industrial Education. Phil is married to Diana McTeague Scott and has two daughters, Erica and Rachael.

Phil's public service career began in 2000, when he was elected to the Vermont Senate from Washington County. He served five terms in the Senate, sitting on the Natural Resources and Transportation Committees, and serving as Chair of the Institutions Committee. He was elected Vermont's Lt. Governor in 2010.

Outside of the State House, Phil is a small business owner, community leader, and well-known stock car driver. He is co-owner of DuBois Construction in Middlesex, having worked his way up from summer laborer to company owner, along with Don DuBois. His real-world construction experience has been invaluable to the work faced in the Legislature.

In 2004, Phil founded the Wheels for Warmth program, in which Vermonters donate tires they no longer need. The tires that meet state inspection standards are offered for resale at affordable prices the last weekend in October, with all proceeds benefiting heating fuel assistance programs. The tires that are not inspectable are recycled.

During the summer, you can find Phil at Barre's Thunder Road International Speedbowl, where he has raced the #14 car since 1992. To date, Phil has the most career wins as a Late Model driver at Thunder Road.

VICKI STRONG, of Albany VT, has lived a life of service to her community as a Pastor's wife for 28 years and as a Weight-Watchers Leader for 14 years. She has enjoyed every area of ministry, from teaching and working with children, to organizing many forms of community outreach to people of all ages. She met her husband, Nate Strong, in Craftsbury Common, VT, while attending Sterling College in 1975. She then went on to attend Le-Tourneau University to study Bible and Missions, and at that time married Nate on 7/7/77. Together they enjoyed raising three children, home-schooled them, and worked in church ministry together. All three children went on to college, and their middle child, Jesse, joined the Marine Corps at the age of 19. Jesse graduated from Marine Corps boot camp two weeks before September 11, 2001, and after his college graduation from Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA was activated to go to Iraq. Sadly, on January 26, 2005, Jesse, was killed in action while on a night mission several days before the first free Iraqi election. In grieving her deep loss, Vicki has sought to honor her son's sacrifice for freedom, and she is proud of his service for our country. In the years since losing her son, many opportunities have opened up for Vicki, and running for state office as a Representative became a new form of service to her community. TRISTAN TOLENO grew up in Marlboro and graduated from Brattleboro Union High School in 1989. He was a philosophy and religion major at Wesleyan University, but then chose to follow a passion for food and be a chef. In one busy weekend in 1996, he graduated from New England Culinary Institute and married Susie Webster, also from Brattleboro. They moved to New York City, where he developed his cooking skills and Susie earned her Master of Divinity degree. Following their urban adventure they moved back to Brattleboro, where for its ten years of operations, Toleno was the managing partner and chef of Riverview Cafe. He continues to work in food service as a caterer, having started two small catering brands, Entera Catering, and Rigani Catered Wood-Fired Pizza. In 2011, Toleno completed a two-year MBA at Marlboro College. A decade of business experience and activism in many arenas - notably the local food movement and kids' health - drew him to study sustainability and system change. Susie Webster-Toleno serves as the minister to the Congregational Church of Westminster West and as a hospice chaplain. Owen is in the eighth grade at Brattleboro Area Middle School, and Malcolm is a sixth-grader at Green St. School.

MIKE MROWICKI of Putney, wasn't born here but grew up in Vermont, or began the process of growing up when he was 27, moved to Vermont and became a father to Grace ('81) and Maria ('84). Parenting has been the most catalyzing events in life to date and started the shift from blue collar worker to stay-at-home Dad, then child care provider, parenting educator, family services worker, and administrator. Those experiences in public service -youth/ community development subsequently led to running for the House-and election- serving on House Human Services Comm. Giving back, and paying forward, has been a family legacy starting with his grandparents. All four came from Poland after WWI and came to love this country for the opportunity it gave them as immigrants. Outside of the legislature, recent activities include the Marlboro College Graduate School's Non-Profit Management Program, the Vermont Positive Fatherhood Initiative, Putney Food Shelf, Windham Hunger Council, Sojourns Community Health Center board, and is a member of the Putney Quaker Meeting. An avid outdoor enthusiast, Mike enjoys biking, quiet water kayaking, cross-country skiing and "geezer-basketball". Writing and playing music is an avocation that inspires and informs his aesthetic sense and Mike has released 4 CD's of original music, the latest with the duo, Vermont Timbre.
